

International Institute of Information Technology – Hyderabad

4th May 2023

Course: Gender, Kinship and State Law (JIS2.302)

End semester exam

Total: 40 marks

A. Answer any 2 questions out of 3. word limit (1000-1100 words). (10marksx2=20)

Question 1: Explain the inter relationship between Gender, Kinship and State law in the context of India. Substantiate with elaborate examples and insights drawn from the course taught.

Question 2: Explain the relationship between Family and Kinship across India. Highlight the merits and demerits of such structures to define relationships.

Question 3: “Assisted Reproductive Technologies have given new opportunities to married couples to overcome infertility and form their own family.” Do you agree with this statement? Explain your stand with elaborate examples and reasons.

B. Answer any 4 short notes out of 6 (5marksx4=20).

1. Standpoint Feminist Theory
- 2. Sexuality and Gender Judith Butler, Gender Trouble
- 3. Reproductive Rights and privacy in India 20 weeks
4. Kinship patterns in India
- 5. The Surrogacy (Regulation) Act, 2021 5 years
- 6. Family and Indian State law ethnography