

International Institute of Information Technology, Hyderabad
(Deemed to be University)

Course Name: Applied Ethics

Course Code: H102

Semester Name: Monsoon 2023

Mid-Semester Exam

Duration: 90 minutes

Max. Marks: 30

Date: 23/9/2023

A. Write detailed answers on any three of the following in 500-600 words each (10x3=30)

1. Critically analyse the McIntyre evaluation of Emotivism's claim that all moral judgments are nothing but expressions of preference, attitude or feeling.
- ✓ 2. Do you think that Kant's rationalist ethics can be applied to the sphere of Animal rights? Explain your argument with reference to Peter Singer and Christine Korsgaard account of animal ethics.
- ✓ 3. Every skill and every inquiry is thought to aim at some good; and so good has been aptly described as that at which everything aims.

Write a critical analysis of the aforesaid quote from the Nichomachean Ethics with reference to Aristotle's account of Virtue Ethics.

- 4. Elaborate the notion of Friendship described in the Nichomachean Ethics. Do you think that people can develop virtue friendships on virtual platforms like Facebook?

morality and identity