

International Institute of Information Technology, Hyderabad

Course Name: Applied Ethics

Course Code: H 102

Semester: Monsoon 2023

$$\frac{160}{40} = 40$$

End-Sem Exam

Duration: 03 hrs

Max. Marks: 40

Date: 28/11/2023

A. Answer the following in 250 words each: (5x2=10)

1. Emotivism and Kantian ethics q. 20
2. Justice and Civic Friendship in Nicomachean Ethics q. 40

McIntyre in After defines emotions as moral disagreements incommensurable, and paradoxical and in
they are nothing
an expression
Kantian Ethics view address reconciles ① universal ② in ③ law in his

A. Answer the following in 500 words each: (10x3=30)

Giblin, dignity

1. Compare and contrast the role of Kantian ethics vis-à-vis virtue ethics in the domain of the patient-doctor relationship. Which approach seems to be more suitable according to you in overcoming the challenges of the patient-doctor relationship?
2. Critically analyse the notion of Online Public Shaming (OPS) based on the following features explained by Aitchison and Garcia's in the essay 'Against Online Public Shaming':

11:00

 - a. Aggregative Public effect
 - b. Loss of control over one's public identity
 - c. Norm-patrolling
 - d. Respect
 - e. Due process
3. Critically examine the differences between categorical imperative in Kant's practical philosophy and phronesis in Aristotle's virtue ethics. Do you think that a moral agent can act with practical wisdom in the 'Kingdom of Ends'?

-Best of Luck-